Meany-Holland Fund Update

The Meany-Holland Memorial Fund was created in 1984 with the intention of raising a sum of $500,000. The principle is maintained in a perpetual trust, with the income being used to fund an endowed chair in the Department of Accounting. In order to accelerate the attainment of the original goal, Gordon Ford issued a challenge in July of 1995. Mr. Ford, a loyal Bowling Green College of Commerce alumnus, agreed to contribute $20,000 if an additional $80,000 is raised. As of November 26, 1996 approximately $45,000 has been raised towards the $80,000 goal.

J.R. Meany was a graduate of the Albany Law School. After graduation, he practiced maritime law in New York City, before relocating to Bowling Green in the 1920s. He was a professor of Law at the Bowling Green College of Commerce, where he also acquired a B.S. in Accounting. In 1940 he started practicing Accountancy, and founded J.R. Meany & Associates in 1951. Recently, the firm merged with Baird, Kurtz & Dobson.

James Cecil Holland received his undergraduate education at the Bowling Green College of Commerce, and went on to obtain his M.B.A. at Northwestern University. In 1933, Professor Holland returned to Bowling Green to teach at the College of Commerce. He taught at the College until 1963, during which time he also engaged in private practice with J.C. Holland & Company.

The first recipient of the Meany-Holland professorship is Dr. Janet Colbert, who joined the accounting faculty in 1993.

Dr. Colbert received her B.S. in Accountancy at the University of Illinois, her M.B.A. from Auburn University, and completed her Ph.D. at the University of Georgia. Dr. Colbert is widely published in academic, practitioner, and international journals and has been a tremendous ambassador for both the University and the Department of Accounting.

The goals of the original founders of the Meany-Holland Fund have nearly been reached thanks to the commitment of B.U. alumni. The contributions honor two outstanding teachers, and also help the Department of Accounting in its continual effort to achieve academic excellence. These contributions are greatly appreciated, and any further contributions to help meet the goals of the founders are welcome.

Year End Gifts

During the Fall Phonathon, we were unable to contact many of the alumni of the WKU accounting program and the Bowling Green Business University. Please help us continue the excellence in Western's accounting programs by supporting the Accounting Department through the Accounting Excellence Association or the Meany-Holland Fund. A pledge card has been enclosed to assist alumni who wish to make their contributions before December 31.

Lionel V. Tetrick Scholarship Fund Established

The history and heritage of the Bowling Green Business University and Western Kentucky University are closely linked. After meeting the educational needs of this area for almost 60 years as separate institutions, the schools were united in 1963. Today, Western Kentucky University takes pride in including B.U. alumni among its most treasured and distinguished alumni.

Jane Valentine Tetrick, an alumnus of B.U., has recently contributed $26,000 to establish a perpetual trust with the College Heights Foundation in honor of her late husband, Lionel V. Tetrick. Mr. Tetrick, a 1947 B.U. graduate, was a dedicated professional who had a distinguished career in public accounting. The trust fund will provide an annual scholarship for a deserving accounting student enrolled in Western's College of Business Administration. The Lionel V. Tetrick Scholarship Fund will serve as a lasting memorial to Mr. Tetrick and is a testimony to the Tetrick's belief in the importance of education.

The Lionel V. Tetrick Scholarship Fund is just one example of how B.U. alumni have honored the memory of B.U. and its alumni, while promoting excellence at Western Kentucky University. Friends, family, and fellow alumni can honor the memory of Lionel V. Tetrick by making additional contributions to the Lionel V. Tetrick Scholarship Fund.

Accounting Mission Statement Drafted

As part of the re-accreditation process, the department of Accounting has developed a mission statement. The mission statement is of primary importance to the accreditation process. This statement should reflect the environmental and institutional settings of the accounting programs, and should also reflect current thinking on the role of accounting in business and other organizations. Presented to the right is the mission statement for the accounting programs at Western Kentucky University.

We would be interested in any comments or suggestions that you might have. Please forward your comments to:

Mission Statement

The Department of Accounting at Western Kentucky University is committed to offering high quality programs leading to baccalaureate and Master of Professional Accountancy degrees. The department prepares accounting professionals possessing both a broad general education as well as a sound professional education experience. The primary mission of the department focuses on teaching and instruction, but also includes involvement applied, basic and educational research to support the teaching mission. The department seeks to engage highly competent, professional faculty that possess a balance between outstanding instruction and an excellent record of intellectual contributions and service to the accounting profession. Our goal is to develop and maintain the preeminent accounting programs in the state and the region.

Contributors to the Meany-Holland Fund

The Following is a listing of all individuals who have contributed to the Meany-Holland Fund through Nov. 25, 1996. The listing was compiled from records maintained by the College Heights Foundation, the custodian of the fund. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this list. If you find that your name has been misspelled, omitted, or incorrectly listed, please let us know so that corrections can be made in future publication and in our office records. Your help will ensure that your contribution is earmarked for the Meany-Holland Fund.
